

Professional Data

David Wilmoth

International Investment Forum for Private Higher Education

Bionote

Dr David Wilmoth is Principal, David Wilmoth Associates Pty Ltd, consultant and service providers to the education and training industry and the urban development sector.

He has until recently held various vice-president roles at the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology, including Group Governance, International, Higher Education and Academic Services. He was Dean of the Faculty of Environmental Design and Construction and CEO of RMIT International University Vietnam Ltd during its planning and start-up phases, as well as CEO of RMIT International Pty Ltd, CEO of RMIT Malaysia Sdn Bhd during a college start-up and Chair of Melbourne's Knowledge Precinct.

David is currently a Director of Monash College Group Pty Ltd and Asia Injury Prevention Foundation (a US NGO active with road safety in SE Asia), a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Management, a member of the steering committee of the International Network on the Role of Universities in Developing Areas (INRUDA) and a Senior Associate of the Nautilus Institute. An adviser to governments, NGOs and companies on higher education and urban development in Australia and East Asia, David's current consulting and research interests include feasibility and business planning for university and college start-ups, university governance and quality assurance, education and research precincts in cities and urban infrastructure planning. He lives in Melbourne, Australia.