

DR. ROLPH N. S. BALGOBIN

Dr. Rolph N. S. Balgobin leads the Arthur Lok Jack Graduate School of Business, at the University of the West Indies. Prior to this, he was Project Director in the Global Business Services Unit of Proctor & Gamble. Based in the UK, he was responsible for global project implementations in Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

Rolph was educated in the UK and the West Indies. He holds a Doctor of Business Administration from the Manchester Business School, an Executive Master of Business Administration and a first degree in industrial management.

His research and teaching interests are in the areas of firm and national competitiveness, corporate turnaround and the design and implementation of corporate strategy. He most recently led the consulting team which pulled together the Vision 2020 Draft National Strategic Plan for Trinidad and Tobago.

He currently serves on a number of corporate and charitable boards and committees within and beyond the Caribbean, including:

- Neal and Massy Holdings Limited,
- The Dispute Resolution Centre,
- Youth Business Trinidad and Tobago,
- the International Accreditation Board of the AMBA in the UK