

Acknowledgments

The study is a joint product of the IFC East Asia and Pacific Department and the Private Sector Development Unit, East Asia and Pacific Region of the World Bank. Background notes were prepared by Jean-Francois Arvis, Cally Jordan, Zhong Jiyin (Integrity Consulting, Beijing), Klaus Lorch, Daochi Tong, Feng Tongqing (China Labor College), Jing Yiqing, (Deloitte & Touche, Beijing), Xu Xiaosong (China University of Politics and Law), and Junkuo Zhang (DRC). Arvind Gupta and Chau-Ching Shen made special contributions at various stages of the work. Harry Broadman, Cheryl Gray, and Richard Newfarmer were peer reviewers. Extensive guidance and support were provided by Loup Brefort and Karin Finkelston.

The Development Research Center (DRC) at the State Council supported and facilitated the study for its successful implementation. Chen Xiaohong, director general, and other DRC staff provided valuable guidance and support throughout. A draft of the study was presented and discussed at a workshop organized by the World Bank Group and DRC in May 2001 in Beijing. Additional presentations and comments were made by Wu Jinglian (DRC), Zhang Zuoyuan (CASS), Fang Liufang (China University of Politics and Law), Chen Xiaohong (DRC), Ding Ningning (DRC), Hu Ruyin (Shanghai Stock Exchange), Zhang Wenkui (DRC), Wang Dongjiang (SCORES), Chen Yanhai (SETC), Zhang Weiguo (CSRC), Li Xiaoxue (CSRC), Zhou Fangsheng (SETC), Chen Su (CASS), Liu Shijin (DRC), and Li Zhaoxi (DRC), who together with the discussions at the workshop enriched the final study.

The study also benefited from comments and insights from other World Bank and IFC staff, including Deepak Bhattasali, Olivier Fremont, Carmen Genovese, Sudarshan Gooptu, Mike Lubrano, Behdad Nowroozi, Djordjija Petkoski, Guy Pfeffermann, Peter Taylor, Jun Zhang, and Junkuo Zhang. Udayan Wagle and Mariko Higashi supported the field work through funding from IFC Trust Funds. Alice Faintich was the principal editor. Dana Lane organized the production of the book. Assistance was provided by Katie Shaw, Doris Chung, and Guo Zhenxuan.

ix