

Australia	Australia is one of IFC’s largest development partners in the Indo-Pacific and has provided long-standing support to IFC’s advisory services, upstream activities, and blended finance, among others. It has supported a wide range of partnerships on climate change, gender, and others. Australia Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT)
Austria	Austria is an important partner of IFC. Austria has supported IFC on a wide range of projects including renewable energy and agribusiness, among others. Austria Ministry of Finance
Canada	Canada is one of IFC’s largest partners supporting IFC investments and advisory services in numerous regions and sectors, including climate, gender, agribusiness, and others. The IFC-Canada Climate Change Program, established in 2011, is IFC’s first-bilateral Blended Finance program. Global Affairs Canada FinDev Canada
China	China has supported IFC in several areas, including infrastructure and green finance. China's contributions include IFC Managed Co-Lending Portfolio Program (MCP) and the China World Bank Group Partnership Facility (CWPF) China Ministry of Finance Hong Kong Monetary Authority
Czechia	Czechia signed a partnership agreement with IFC in December 2022. It supports IFC’s advisory and upstream activities, within the Global Food Security Platform (GAFSP) among others. Ministry of Finance of the Czech Republic
Denmark	Denmark is an important partner of IFC. Denmark supports numerous IFC initiatives on climate, gender, support for fragile and conflict states, among others. Denmark Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Danish International Development Agency (DANIDA)) Denmark Investment Fund for Developing Countries (IFU)
European Union	The European Union is one of IFC’s most important partners. The EU supports IFC activities in many countries and sectors around the world. IFC collaborates with numerous EU institutions, including the European Commission(EC), and the European Parliament (EP). European Commission (EC) European Parliament (EP)

Finland	Finland is an active partner of IFC. In addition to cooperation on Advisory Services and numerous donor-funded-activities, IFC and Finland launched a Finland-IFC Blended Finance for Climate Program in 2017. Finland Ministry for Foreign Affairs
France	French is a longstanding partner of IFC to create markets and mobilize private investment especially in West Africa. France supports IFC's OHADA (Organization for the Harmonization of Business Law in Africa) Business Law Program to improve the investment climate in West Africa. The French Treasury (Direction Générale du Trésor) PROPARCO
Germany	Germany is one of IFC's largest partners. Germany supports a wide range of IFC's advisory services, upstream activities and blended finance. IFC and Germany cooperate across numerous regions on a breadth of issues including agribusiness, climate and energy. Germany Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) Germany Ministry for Economic Affairs and Climate Action (BMWK) Germany Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation & Nuclear Safety and Consumer Protection German Corporation for International Cooperation (GIZ) KfW Development Bank
Hungary	Hungary partners with IFC in numerous regions and sectors. The Hungary-IFC Partnership Trust Fund (HIPTF), established in 2014, supports the energy, agribusiness, health, water management and ICT sectors in numerous emerging markets. Hungary Ministry of Finance Hungary Export-Import Bank
Ireland	Ireland supports numerous IFC initiatives aimed at promoting private sector development in emerging markets, including in fragile and conflict-affected states in Africa, as well as gender equality and inclusion. Ireland Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade/Irish Aid Enterprise Ireland
Israel	IFC has a longstanding partnership with Israel. Israel supports IFC's Advisory Services, including for medical technology and agricultural sectors, among others. Israel has also supported IFC's TechEmerge Health Program to improve healthcare in emerging markets. Israel Ministry of Finance Israel Ministry of Economy and Industry Bank of Israel
Italy	Italy is a long standing partner of IFC. In 2019, the Italian government renewed its commitment to expand energy access in developing countries through the Italy-IFC Clean Energy Access Partnership.

	Italy Ministry of Environment and Energy Security Italy Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation Italy Ministry of Economy and Finance Italian Development Finance Institution (SIMEST) Bank of Italy Cassa Depositi e Prestiti (CDP)
Japan	Japan is one of IFC's largest partners of IFC. Collaboration spreads across a wide range of regions and sectors, including health, food security, climate, quality infrastructure, and development in Africa. The Comprehensive Japan Trust Fund (CJTF) is the oldest Advisory trust fund at IFC . Japan Ministry of Finance Japan Bank for International Cooperation (JBIC) Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) Nippon Export and Investment Insurance (NEXI)
Luxembourg	Luxembourg is a strong partner of IFC and supports a wide range of programs including business environment, corporate governance and climate. In 2018 IFC and Luxembourg established the Luxembourg-IFC Partnership Program (LIPP) to support economic growth and development in emerging markets. Luxembourg Ministry of Finance
Netherlands	Netherlands is one of IFC's largest partners for IFC's advisory services, upstream and blended finance. Netherlands' supports include forced displacement and migration, public-private partnerships, climate, SME financing, insurance, food security, jobs and education and manufacturing. Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs FMO: Dutch Entrepreneurial Development Bank Invest International
New Zealand	New Zealand is an important partner of IFC. New Zealand supports Advisory programs focusing, among others, on the East Asia and Pacific region with a strong focus on the Pacific Islands. New Zealand Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (MFAT)
Norway	Norway is an important partner of IFC. Norway supports a wide range of programs, including the Foreign Investment Advisory Services Facility (FIAS), Africa Fragility Initiative (AFI), the Global Health Platform (GHP). Norway Ministry of Foreign Affairs Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation (NORAD) Norwegian Investment Fund for developing countries (NORFUND)
Portugal	Portugal is an important partner of IFC. IFC and Portugal signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) in 2019 to support sustainable tourism in Lusophone Africa and a MoU in 2015 to reinforce cooperation and support for financing investment in emerging markets.

	Portugal Ministry of Finance Portugal Ministry of Foreign Affairs Portugal Development Finance Institution (SOFID)
Republic of Korea	Korea is a strong emerging partner of IFC. Korea contributes to IFC's advisory and blended finance programs in a wide range of regions and sectors including climate, digitalization and public-private partnerships. Korea's contribution to IFC began in 2018 with the establishment of the Korea-IFC Partnership Program (KIPP). Republic of Korea Ministry of Economy and Finance
Slovak Republic	The Slovak Republic has been a partner of IFC since the establishment of the Slovakia-IFC Partnership Trust Fund in 2015. The Slovak Republic supports a variety of programs including manufacturing, agribusiness, IT and climate and energy. Slovak Republic Ministry of Finance Export-Import Bank of the Slovak Republic
South Africa	IFC has a long-standing partnership with South Africa since 2003. South Africa support a variety of IFC projects including advisory services in emerging markets in Sub-Saharan Africa. South Africa Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (DTIC)
Spain	Spain is a robust partner of IFC. Since 1998, Spain has supported a wide range of projects in infrastructure, financial sector development, investment climate, and other areas across the globe, including via the Spain-IFC Technical Assistance Trust Fund (TATF). Spain Ministry of Economic Affairs and Digital Transformation (MINECO) Spain Ministry of Industry, Trade and Tourism (MINCOTUR) COFIDES (Spanish Development Finance Institution) ICO (Official Credit Institution under MINECO) ICEX (Spanish Institute for Foreign Trade)
Sweden	Sweden is a strong partner of IFC. Sweden supports numerous IFC initiatives including the MENA MSME 2.0 program to strengthen financial inclusion, MCPP Infrastructure to mobilize infrastructure funding and the Green Bond Technical Assistance Program to help develop green bonds markets. Swedish International Development Cooperation (SIDA)
Switzerland	Switzerland is a strong partner of IFC and one of the largest donors to IFCs advisory services globally, with focus on sustainability, financial inclusion, governance, and investment climate reform. Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC) Swiss State Secretariat for Economic Affairs (SECO)
United Kingdom	The UK is one of the largest donors to IFC Advisory Services and Blended Finance activities. The UK supports IFC initiatives in numerous regions

	including fragile and low-income countries, as well as a wide range of themes including climate, migration, and food security. UK Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy (BEIS) UK Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office (FCDO) UK Department on International Trade (DIT)
United States of America	The United States is IFC's key partner across a wide range of regions and sectors. U.S. support for IFC initiatives include the Global Agriculture and Food Security Program (GAFSP) ; Scaling Solar, tourism development in the Pacific Islands, vaccine manufacturing in Africa, among many others. U.S. Department of the Treasury Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC) U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) U.S. International Development Finance Corporation (DFC)