

IFC FOOD SAFETY INTERNAL AUDIT COURSE

Interactive training for food businesses and experts to sharpen their skills in food safety Internal Audit

WHY THIS COURSE?

You want to verify the level of compliance of your food safety management system and abide to international standards, thereby opening opportunities for wider markets?

This course helps food businesses to conduct internal audits of their own food safety practices.

THE COURSE PROVIDES

- A roadmap on integrating food safety Internal Audit system into company's business
- Practical skills to evaluate and drive improvements in line with best international practice on Internal Auditing
- Guidance to identify problems with food safety management system's integration and effective design

COURSE CONTENT

- Introduction
- Session 1: Planning & Preparing for an Internal Audit
- Session 2: Performing an Internal Audit
- Session 3: Communicating the audit results
- Session 4: Corrective action and root cause analysis
- Conclusion and Evaluation

COURSE STRUCTURE

- Enhances current training offerings with practical tips to help companies improve food safety practices while conducting Internal Audit
- Through practical exercises and expert guidance, learners will gain the skills to proactively prevent contamination and safeguard public health

TARGET GROUPS

Food manufacturing and catering businesses, food retailers, food safety experts, auditors, trainers and quality managers

CONTACT US

Platform Lead, Food Safety and Food Loss Prevention Advisory
nmgeladze@ifc.org and ifcfs@ifc.org

LEARN MORE at www.ifc.org/foodsafety

Best international practice on Internal Audit customized to local market specificities of the region

Strong accent on the most labor-intensive stage of implementation: tailoring and maintenance of documents (adjustable templates for Internal Audit)

Ensure compliance and maintain high standards of food safety by enhancing Internal Audit capabilities

Engage existing customers and attract new ones by having an Internal Audit system in place

IFC FOOD SAFETY INTERNAL AUDIT self-paced e-Learning is available in English, French, and Vietnamese

Explore more World Bank and IFC Agribusiness learning programs on World Bank Academy web-site

