Fifteen of the largest companies in Solomon Islands - including Hatanga - are pioneering measures to promote gender equality in the workplace. Through the Waka Mere Commitment to Action, they work toward at least one of three goals: promote more women in leadership, build respectful and supportive workplaces, and increase opportunities for women in jobs traditionally held by men. Both companies and employees have already started to see the benefits.

“...I am very grateful to my company for sending me to a leadership training. They believed in me and saw my potential when I could not see it myself...”
