The Equator Principles and Sustainability in the Financial Sector: Transforming Markets in Latin America

Date: November 10, 2006
Venue: Auditório 1, Rua XV de Novembro, 275 - 1º andar
Centro - São Paulo/SP - Brasil

Sponsored by the International Finance Corporation
In collaboration with BOVESPA and the Center for Sustainability Studies of Fundação Getulio Vargas (FGV-EAEASP)

AGENDA

11:00 Opening the Conference – Motoko Aizawa, IFC

Welcoming Remarks – Rachel Kyte, Director, Environment & Social Development, IFC

Welcoming Remarks -- Gilberto Mifano, General Superintendent, BOVESPA

Welcoming Remarks – Prof. Mario Monzoni, Center for Sustainability Studies of Fundação Getulio Vargas (FGV-EAEASP)

11:15 IFC's Financial and Technical Support in the Region – Saran Kebet-Koulibaly, IFC

11:35 IFC's Approach to Sustainability -- Sustainability Policy and Performance Standards – Rachel Kyte, IFC

12:15 The Equator Principles in the Region – A Panel Discussion

MODERATOR: Motoko Aizawa, IFC

PANELISTS: Cristiane Ronza, ABN Banco Real
Wagner de Siqueira Pinto, Banco do Brasil
Sharon Maharg, West LB

13:00 Lunch
14:00 Where Principles Meet Practice: Benefits to Banks and their Clients - A Panel Discussion

MODERATOR: Rachel Kyte, IFC

PANELISTS: M. Estela Ferraz de Campos, Banco Itau
Anne Marie Richter, Integratio
Marcelo de Andrade, ProNatura/Parmalat

15:00 Emerging Issues for Sustainable Financial Markets in the Region – A Panel Discussion

MODERATOR: Gladis Ribeiro, FGV

PANELISTS: Ricardo Nogueira, Bovespa Operations Superintendent, BOVESPA
Demostenes Silva, Director of Environment and Carbon Markets - AES Tietê
Sonia Favaretto, CSR Director, FEBRABAN (Federação Brasileira de Bancos)

15:45 Coffee

16:00 Equator Principles: Early Lessons Learned and Looking into the Future – A Panel Discussion

MODERATOR: Rachel Kyte, IFC

PANELISTS: Sidney Wang, HSBC
Cassio Trunkl, Amigos da Terra
Motoko Aizawa, IFC

16:45 Questions for the Panelists

17:15 Closing Remarks – Rachel Kyte, IFC

17:30 Reception