IFC, a member of the World Bank Group, is the largest global development institution focused exclusively on the private sector. We help developing countries achieve sustainable growth by financing private sector investment, mobilizing capital in international financial markets, and providing advisory services to businesses and governments. We play a catalytic role by demonstrating the profitability of investments in emerging markets.

IFC Discount Notes

- IFC discount notes offer investors short-term, high quality investment opportunities in US dollar (USD) and Renminbi (CNH)
- Launched in 2009, the Global Discount Note Program complements IFC's Global MTN Program and provides an additional funding and liquidity management tool for IFC to support IFC's trade finance and supply chain initiatives, and to expand the availability of short-term local currency finance
- IFC was the first multilateral institution to launch CNH and TRY discount note programs to eligible institutional investors globally, enabling the regular issuance of off shore discount notes and expanding the availability of short-term local-currency finance

Moody’s Aaa
Long-term rating (December 2019) Outlook: Stable

Standard & Poor’s AAA
Long-term rating (February 2020) Outlook: Stable

The stable outlook reflects our view that IFC will maintain its very high capital adequacy, liquidity, as well as shareholders’ willingness and capacity to provide support, thereby keeping its credit profile in line with the Aaa rating.

Moody’s
5 December 2019

The stable outlook reflects that IFC will maintain an extremely strong financial risk profile, underpinned by high capital levels, a strong liquidity position, and expected continuity of its robust risk management policies.
