IFC Young Professionals Program (Page 1/2)

1. Why did I get a notice of non-selection so quickly when the application process doesn't close until October 2, 2018? Will you provide additional feedback?

Answer: Unfortunately, we have specific requirements for experience and you responded that you either did not meet the minimum years of experience and/or you listed more (over 6 years of experience than required in the screening questions. We will not offer additional feedback.

2. I have more than the required six years of experience, should I apply?

Answer: You should not apply if you have more than the six years of experience direct experience related to the field of finance/investment/etc. as this is a junior position that would better fit a candidate with the required three to six years of experience.

3. I applied last year, do I have to apply again this year?

Answer: Yes, you would need to apply again this year.

4. What is the timeframe from application closure to hiring?

Answer: We close the application period at 8 p.m. EST on October 2, 2018. We will not offer extensions.

5. What about my visa status as a student, is this something I manage with the State Department or will the World Bank assist in this process?

Answer: As an international organization, the World Bank will assist in processing all visa types if you're a citizen of a member country. Member countries can be found on the www.worldbank.org website. Type in the search box member countries to view the list or use the link attached: <http://www.worldbank.org/en/about/leadership/members>

6. When can I expect notification that I have been short-listed?

Answer: Notifications will be sent no later than 2 weeks after the closing of the applications which would be approximately Friday, October 12, 2018.

7. When are 1st round interviews? Who pays for the first-round interviews?

Answer: First round interviews are scheduled for mid-October to early November 2018, dates pending. All candidates who make it beyond the initial application process, will receive a notification. Expenses to attend the first-round interviews are borne by the applicant as most first-round interviews will take place on school campus' and via webex.
