Corporate Governance

Brown Bag Lunch and Webinar

What’s New in Corporate Governance Standards and how it Links to Sustainable Markets

Speakers Bios (in alphabetical order)

BERG, ALEX

Alexander Berg is the Senior Financial Sector Development Specialist in the Financial and Markets in the World Bank. He focuses on corporate governance in the capital markets, regulatory governance, and the implementation of corporate governance codes. He coordinates the World Bank’s Corporate Governance ROSC program, as well as the Bank’s contribution to the Africa Corporate Governance Program. Mr. Berg has more than 20 years of experience in corporate governance reform, capital markets policy analysis, and state-owned enterprise reform. Prior to joining the World Bank, he directed a number of consulting projects in the areas of capital markets development and privatization in several countries. He also held positions with the OECD and the U.S. government. Mr. Berg received his MBA from the University of Chicago, and graduated with honors (Phi Beta Kappa) from Oberlin College.

CURMALLY, ATIYAH

Atiyah Curmally is a Senior Environmental Specialist in IFC Environment, Social and Governance Department based out of Washington, DC. Her responsibilities include support to senior management on global sustainability issues and development of IFC’s environmental and social risk management advisory services for IFC’s financial markets and direct investment clients. Prior to this, she oversaw environmental and social investment support to IFC’s Financial Markets, Funds and Short-term Finance Departments. Ms. Curmally has been with IFC for 8 years. Her previous work experience includes positions with private sector and non-profit institutions focused on infrastructure project finance and risk management for financial markets. Ms. Curmally has degrees in Environmental Policy and Economics from Brown University and the London School of Economics.

GERMANOVA, RALITZA

Ralitza has worked with IFC since 2008 working with regulators, director training institutions and private sector companies in improve their corporate governance practices in Europe and Central Asia, the Middle East and North Africa. Ralitza has been leading the development of knowledge materials on Corporate Governance Codes and Scorecards, institutional capacity building, and bank governance. From 2008 to 2010 Ralitza was based in the IFC office in Sofia working the development and implementation of the Bulgarian CG Code and Scorecard. Prior to joining IFC, Ralitza worked for the United Nations Development Program in Bulgaria as a Coordinator of the UN Global Compact Network and Bulgarian Foreign Investment Agency. Ralitza holds a Master’s degree in Corporate Governance from HANKEN School of Economics in Helsinki, Finland and Masters in Law and Economics from the University of National and World Economy in Bulgaria.
MOLYNEUX, ANNE

Anne Molyneux, Director of CS International, a global consulting firm, is a Chartered Accountant, CPA and Master of Management. She is an experienced director and former trustee of pension funds and currently is a consultant in corporate governance. She is a business representative and contributor to the OECD Corporate Governance Steering Committee and to the OECD Asian Roundtable and she represents the investor community on the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) Advisory Council, the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB) Consultative Advisory Group. She is a fellow member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, a member of the Institute of Directors and a member of the International Corporate Governance Network.

NEJKOV, KIRIL

Kiril Nejkov, Operations Officer, has been working in IFC since 2006. For the last 7 years he focuses on corporate governance, particularly on control environment. Before that he worked on alternative dispute resolution. Kiril has comprehensive experience in corporate governance from South-East Europe, the Caucasus and South Asia, including through provision of tailored support to over 50 companies and work on over 20 national and sector-specific regulations and standard. Kiril developed a number of publications and tools, including sections of the Control Environment Toolkit of IFC’s Corporate Governance Methodology. Before joining IFC, Kiril worked as adviser to the President and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Macedonia, as well as expert for the EU, UNDP and the World Bank. Kiril holds a PhD in corporate governance from the University of Skopje and LL.M in International Law from Cambridge University.