

Investing for Impact

Promoting sustainable development through investment in the private sector

IFC, a member of the World Bank Group, is the largest global development institution focused exclusively on the private sector. IFC helps developing countries achieve sustainable growth by financing private sector investments, mobilizing capital in international financial markets, and providing advisory services to businesses and governments. We play a catalytic role by demonstrating the profitability of investments as well as being at the forefront of impact investing in emerging markets.

IFC's Funding Program

IFC's annual funding program for FY23 is up to $12 billion. IFC issues bonds in the global capital markets to fund our investments in the private sector in emerging markets.

Our funding strategy focuses on:

- Establishing a regular presence in our core markets
- Ensuring access to a wide range of markets to benefit from opportunistic and competitively priced transactions
- Promoting the development of emerging capital markets by issuing bonds in local currencies, often in domestic markets

At the end of FY22 (June 2022), IFC had $54 billion in market borrowings outstanding.

IFC issues in different markets and types of issuance including green and social bonds, floating-rate notes, other public bonds, private placements, and through retail programs.

IFC has issued global US dollar benchmark bonds each year since 2000 with a focus on timing, price discovery, and continued secondary market performance.

As at the beginning of FY23, IFC had nine US dollar global benchmark bonds outstanding, including three green bonds and one social bond, for over $12.2 billion in total volume.

IFC issued a $1 billion inaugural SOFR-linked benchmark in June 2021. This was followed by the issuance of a landmark $2 billion fixed-rate bond, the first fixed-rate issuance marketed and priced using SOFR among IFC's peer group.
