Yuri Kuroki
Financial Officer, IFC Singapore

Yuri Kuroki is a financial officer in Singapore who works in the capital markets to raise funds for IFC’s lending portfolio. She primarily focuses on IFC’s bond issuance in Asia Pacific, including the Australian as well as Japanese markets, where she oversees trades and manage relationships with market participants. She further supports IFC’s ongoing work to issue bonds denominated in local currencies, a key step in creating and developing local capital markets.